FROM THE NGFNL PRESIDENT

Hello everyone and welcome to round two of the 2023 season.

Well, whether we were ready or not our NGFNL players took the courts and fields, the sirens sounded, umpires found their whistles, volunteers flew into action and the 2023 season kicked off with a bang. Of course none of this happens overnight and for months hundreds around our clubs and league have preparing in readiness for round 1 and it would be remiss of me if I did not say well done and congrats to all who have helped get season 2023 off to a ripping start.

I always say anything can happen in round one so expect the unexpected and in that regard have you looked at the NGFNL ladder during the week and seen who holds top spot!! A ray of sunshine for all the hard work around the Cowwarr FNC and hopefully this is a sign of things to come for the Saints in 2023 and beyond.

Last weekend I headed to the home of the JETS and for a moment I thought there was a final being played at this venue with just about every car park possible being occupied and a vibrancy of expectation which you could feel around the ground. The Woodside folk were out in large supportive numbers and equally the JETs supporters were actively around supporting both the Football and Netball.

I was officially present to say a few words before the start of the senior game and likewise witness the unfurling of the 2022 Premiership flag. For any club this is a special moment, but it equally signifies the last "hooray" before the business of 2023 begins.

As I always say the JETS will now become the hunted as all 10 clubs want what they have in their trophy cabinet together with what have enjoyed for past 6 months. I am sure Baz and his assistant Coaches at the Jets are well aware of what comes next in that space as nothing lasts forever and the ability to refocus quickly dawns upon all and sundry.

Real or otherwise every footballer knows about the Premiership hangover and this commentary can quickly gather momentum if allowed to fester without effort and scoreboard pressure.

I checked out a little bit of Netball and it would appear the A grade Wildcats will be the real deal again in 2023 as these ladies looked like they have lost nothing over the Summer break. In fact, a few new/old faces only enhance the reigning premiers from 2022.

Whilst on the topic of Netball our League representative Under 15 and two (2) under 17 teams competed in at Traralgon over the weekend and whilst we had one under 17 team make the Grand final we did not come home with any silverware. I am not discouraged by any result from any team as I know our Board and the Interleague coaches understand there is a much bigger picture at play here with these very talented young ladies.

I have no doubt every participant gained something from this tournament, and we await our next tournament where we can again showcase these young ladies for our league. As Molly would say do yourself a favour and support our league representatives. I should also thank our coaches, team managers and umpires who helped on the day. Likewise, to all parents thanks for allowing your kids to participate and supporting them at tryouts, practice and game day.

Let's talk a bit of footy from round one. As I said above, I attended the Jets vs Cats clash and at the end of the day the Cats got the chocolates and could not have started the season any better. The Jets started Q1 well, the Cats missed opportunity and for a while I thought they would pay the price for that misfortune. But some solid footy and what appeared an instinctive desire to "play on" at all costs held the Cats in good stead defeating the Jets by a healthy margin.

VIII V

FROM THE NGFNL PRESIDENT

However, I saw plenty of talent in a Jets jumper and it would be unwise to write these boys off after one game.

In other games Rosedale under the leadership of new Coach Reid could not have started better knowing the Pies have had a solid preseason. Missed opportunity on both sides of the ledger perhaps could have changed the misfortunes of this game but to the victors go the spoils.

The Cougars and the Dees already have a growing rivalry, and this match was no different. In a close game either side could argue they had chances however it was the Cougars who got the chocolates and banked an important 4 points to start season 2023. The Dogs hosted TTU at the kennel who failed to keep pace with what must be described as a Bomber outfit ready for the challenges of coming season. Perhaps the disappointment of losing last year's grand final still runs deep amongst the group however Coach Aitken will take 4 points and move onto round 2. The Saints hosted the Tigers and whilst there was plenty of expectation before the game it was Saints on home soil who played the better and consistent football running out convincing winners starting the season in perfect fashion. There is no doubt a win can generate enthusiasm and confidence and I wish all at Saint land the very best for season 2023.

Round 2 will be spread out over a few weekends with our Good Friday game being held at Yarram. The Dees at home are always a challenging prospect and they will be disappointed not to have beaten the Cougars last week. However, they face a Jets team who will also will be seeking retribution from a round 1 loss. No one can argue they have the ability to turn on the form which few can match. This should be a cracking game under twilight conditions. Is it possible the JETS could find themselves ZIP & two?? WOW that would get the tongues of the NGFNL & footy world wagging! Churchill host Rosedale and it is hard to see the Blues matching the Cougars on home turf. The Blues have lost a couple of stalwarts but still play with enthusiasm and passion. On the other hand, the Cougars have the magic to chalk up win number 2. The Tigers will host the Doggies and a win at home would be the precise medicine to get the Tigers season kick started. However, the Doggies will have sour grapes from a round 1 loss and I am sure they will turn up ready to play. The Pies will host the Roo's in what promises to be an interesting game, but I am hearing good things about the youth at Heyfield, and I am not sure the Pies have the cattle to stop the goal scoring talent up forward.

In what should be a ripping round 2 game the Bombers will host the Cats. WOW what a great game this will be for multiple reasons. Both teams have plenty of talent and I think both teams are a bit better than 2023. I liked what I saw from the Cats last week but at home the Bombers are 5% better. I expect a quick fast paced game as both teams are built for this style of play and this will create an open game if executed properly. So, it could be an accuracy shootout and I for one will be an interested spectator to see the final result and Arthur can buy me a beer regardless or the result!! Well, good luck to everyone over the next few weeks I wish you all well and look forward to catching up around the traps.

Play hard but play fair.

SALE UMPIRE ASSOCIATION

Round 1 is done and dusted, and how good is it to have footy back! All of us at the SUA are excited for the season ahead and are looking forward to another great year. Overall, round 1 was played in good spirits with few issues. Well done to the clubs and players on their discipline.

Our panel for this season is looking strong, though we could always use more umpires. If you've ever wondered what umpiring entails or have been thinking about getting involved, get in touch! Shoot us an email at saleumpires@outlook.com if you are interested.

This Friday we head down to Yarram for the Good Friday match, which is always a good atmosphere and one we all look forward to being involved in.

We also celebrate a couple of milestones on Friday, with goal umpires Rob Salisbury umpiring his 400th game, and Cheryl Walker her 50th. Well done to the both of you and enjoy the day!
