FROM THE NGFNL PRESIDENT

Hello everyone and welcome to round three of the 2023 season.

The Easter Bunny has come and gone for which I trust you all enjoyed with family and friends, and likewise we now have round two behind us as we enter an important phase of the season over the next 6 weeks. In my eyes rounds 1-8 represents a period where a season can be set up for an exciting finish regardless of whether that is on the courts or our football fields. Win a fair chunk of these matches and you are in pretty good shape, 50/50 you have some work to do and perform poorly you have the job ahead of you and season can be a long one. So good luck everyone.

After Easter the Board met for our usual monthly meeting and whilst it is still early in the season our agenda was heavy as usual.

After the success of our compulsory Mental Heath seminar last year we are in discussions to nail down another relevant topic and info session for all clubs. Hopefully we are only a few weeks away from being able to share with you all the finer detail shortly. The Budget still looks in good shape and we are updating various electronic mediums with amended bi-laws and alike. Pride cup planning is in full swing, discussion around grand final dinner venue, vote count venue and even our 2023 Grand Final has received some airtime to name a few topics. So, plenty of things in the wind to sign off on and implement in the near future

Today I will find myself headed to Woodside to participate in the Premiership Flag unfurling of 2022 premiers. The Woodside club have set high standard since entering the NGFNL and have multiple trophies in the cabinet to reflect their success in this space. From what I have seen, read and heard this club looks ominous again in 2023. Anyway, today will be a nice moment to sign off 2022 and see firsthand how this club has refocused for 2023. Good luck to everyone who takes the courts today.

I would like to remind all clubs submission for the 1st round of nominations in the TR Rising Star are open and this new concept opens the door for our league to showcase some of the talent we have sprinkled around our league. I look forward to being part of the assessment process and sharing the monthly winners with you all both in this medium and all via all electronic versions available to us. Who knows we might get an interview or two played through the airwaves of our region to enhance the concept. Last weekend I headed to the home of the TTU Bombers full of expectation and excitement for the clash against the Wildcats. At the same time. I was catching up Camron McPhan AFL Gippsland Regional Manager for a chat on a few localised topics.

The venue looked in pretty good shape and like always the club volunteers should congratulated for their efforts the many hours dedicated to maintenance and upkeep. The Netball courts have been under a redevelopment project during the off season and look magnificent. There have been multiple challenges in having them ready for round 1 and the recent bout of bad weather and rain added regrettable delays. Prior to some light rain on Saturday 4 games were completed on a new surface but the decision was made to abandon the B grade match after one guarter and relocate the A grade game into Traralgon. This was both disheartening and frustrating, but I know that in a few weeks the court surface will settle, and it will be business as usual. Again, to all the TTU people who worked hard behind the scenes I say well done, you cannot control the weather nor stop the clock.

Let's talk a bit of footy from round 2. As I said above, I attended the TTU vs Cats clash and I doubt anyone truly went home disappointed. The Bombers set the field alight in the first quarter, the Cats won the next 3 quarters but lost the game. You must admire the grit and determination of both clubs but when the final siren sounded the Bombers got the chocolates, and Arthur bought me that refreshment which was a nice way to signoff the day .

In other matches on Good Friday the Dees inflicted some more pain on the Jets with a convincing performance inspired by some skills throughout the day. The Cougars dominated the Blues on home turf and I think have fired an ominous shot across the bow for others to hear, the Tigers did not perform their best against the dogs and suffered a heavy loss, and the Pies hosted the Roo's in what was a pretty good match with the Roo's showing their speed and class to gain 4 points get their season up and going.

In todays matches Heyfield will host Churchill. On paper you might think the Cougars are already marching towards September, but I think the Roo's are a real "smokey" in 2023 meaning I think they will surprise many as the season unfolds. The Roo's just go about their business with no real fan fare but I prepared to say they will cause a couple of upsets this year and I equally think they will be a finals participant at the end of round 18. However, the Cougars are a resilient club and the playing group always seem to rise to the challenge. The Cougars will get the points today, but they will not it all their way and nothing would surprise me in this game.

The Blues will host the Jets. I know the Jets will have worked hard since their Good Friday match and find themselves ZIP & 2 on the score card. They will be hungry for a victory and well prepared without excuse for today's match. The Blues had a tough week in round 2 and whilst youth is their best weapon in the rebuild phase, it will not be enough to hold back the Jets in this encounter.

The Dees host TTU and this should be another ripping game. Both clubs have been in good form, and the Dees round one loss to the Cougars was more than a credible effort. Depth is a worry in the Dees camp, and they can ill afford any along the way. However, the Bombers have been impressive, and today's game will offer them an opportunity to make a statement around our league. The Bombers cannot get too far in front of themselves, but they do possess a be fast paced game and fitness level which will trouble most teams including the Dees. Griff leads the Dees like no other but if conditions are good the Bombers have the fire power to get the chocolates.

Woodside host the Tigers, and this is shaping up as another tough day at the office for the Tigers. Sometimes from disappoint comes inspiration and I trust the Tigers will come to the Cattery with renewed vigour and determination. However, I think the Cats are the real deal again in 2023 and will have couple of quality inclusions this week. Coach Duncan understands you take nothing for granted and each week brings it's own set of unique challenges. At home and with a superior playing list they will have too much talent to allow this game to slip away from them.

Down at the Kennel the Dogs will host the Saints and this game is again a game which I find a little bit interesting. In fact, I am so interested I might swing past from Woodside to catch the second half of this match and catch up with both club's executive. I am interested to get a read on both teams. That said there is no doubt in my mind the Dog's are a 5-10% better team at home and will be buoyed by passionate and supportive home crowd. However, the Saints cannot do much more that win round one, they had a bye in round 2 and as I understand the state of play, have prepared well with a full list available for this encounter. The Saints will be inspired by the thought and opportunity of perhaps recording back to back victories. Now that is a tantalising thought even for me.

Good luck to everyone today and remember to play hard but play fair.

Speak soon.

SALE UMPIRE ASSOCIATION

Two weeks in and we are happy to report games are being played in good spirits, which is great to see. We would like to take the time to remind players, coaches and spectators that it is never okay to abuse an umpire or to accuse us of being biased (something that has already happened a couple of times this year), so let's not have any of that this season.

The AFL happily left the rules alone this year, with only one main interpretation change, which has to do with the 'Stand' rule. Essentially, if the player with the ball feigns a handball or kick, we are calling 'play on' immediately. Other than this, the rules remain the same as last year.

We celebrate a few milestones this weekend. SUA President David Faulkner does his 200th game; congrats David! Goal umpire Peter Blair celebrates his 50th game, while boundary umpire Henry Wirken will also do his 50th. Good luck to all and well done!
