FROM THE NGFNL PRESIDENT

Hello everyone and welcome to round four of our 2023 season.

Do you want to hear something unbelievable? At the conclusion of today's matches a quarter of the season will be done for some clubs. I just cannot believe that we are already at this point of the season but as they say "time stands still for no one" so I encourage everyone to make the most of every opportunity that comes your way both from a sport perspective and in your personal life.

As I mentioned last week, I found myself headed to the Cattery to play a small part in the Premiership Flag unfurling of the Wildcats A grade netballers. That premiership required extra time in the 2022 Grand Final in what was one of the great NGFNL A Grade finals to remember but to the winners go the spoils, and I tip my hat accordingly to all and sundry involved.

It was nice gesture to see both Woodside Reserves and Senior Footballers participate acknowledging the achievement and showing equal respect to the ladies for this major achievement. I thought this was a nice way to sign off 2022 and refocus on 2023. Thus far the Woodside girls have shown no signs of premiership hangover and perhaps have their sights on a back to back performance and should that happen I will be back at the Cattery in 2024 to repeat the process and acknowledge any such achievement.

I then headed to the Kennel and I must say despite the challenges of 2022 when this facility was undergoing building works and other associated improvements, this venue now looks amazing and was in great shape for everyone to enjoy. Speaking to President Clapton there is one final project at the Netball courts to undertake and that being some spectator shelter. I look forward to seeing what unfolds over the next season or two.

I met with AGL Loy during the week to cover off on a few corporate issues, attendance dates at Pride Cup, Grand Final dinner and our Grand Final together with a discussion around one initiative we are looking at rolling out after the mid-way point of our season. As a league we are lucky to have such a supportive sponsor and a partnership which is one of mutual benefit.

This makes me think about all our club sponsors in community sport. Most years I usually suggest we support club sponsors where possible or at a minimum allow them to provide a quote for your needs. I can assure you all it makes a difference and remind you all that when our clubs and League had our greatest challenge during COVID the majority of sponsors stood with us, doing what they could to be part of what we deliver in community sport. So, if possible, please share the love, and support these sponsors should the moons align particularly where your product or service need can be delivered by Club or League sponsor has the right product and price.

The good folk at the Cattery welcomed the Tigers to their venue and I would have to say the ongoing improvements have again raised the profile for this passionate community sporting club. In under 18 action it seemed the Tigers missed on maximising their opportunities and the Cats did enough to get the points, in the Reserves the Cats lapped up the home ground advantage and ran out solid winners and in the Senior match the more experienced Wildcats showed the young and enthusiastic Tiger Cubs what is required at the upper end of our League. But to the Tigers credit, they are investing in youth and from what I saw they continued to show up at every contest, regardless of the scoreboard pressure. Games under the belt will pay dividends somewhere down the road.

When I arrived at the Kennel the Doggies had a grip on this game from a scoreboard perspective. I watched the majority of the second half and both teams had plenty of youth and played without fear. I can see improvement in both clubs and whilst the doggies got the chocolates, I can see both teams chalking up more wins before this season ends. In other matches the Cougars flexed their muscles against the Roo's who will be disappointed with the final result. The Blues showed good signs early against last year's Premiers but an impressive last quarter saw the Jets looking like a different unit running out winners to record their first victory for season 2023.

In today's matches the Bombers will host the Blues. TTU have doing nothing wrong thus far in 2023 having claimed the scalps of some seasoned contenders. The Bombers look focused and hungry for redemption however in my experience you cannot rely on these attributes for an entire season. That being said, the Bombers look fit and have a togetherness which cannot bought and these are invaluable assets in the game of Aussie rules. The Blues came to play last week but seemed to fall short in the last quarter. Whilst no one can change that result, it will give the blues some confidence that a victory is not far away. However, at home it is hard to see the Bombers losing this one.

The Tigers will host the Demons in what will again be a challenging day for the Tigers. I am impressed with the Tigers investment in youth and the more games these young men get under their belt the better they will be in 2023 and beyond. However, the Demons will be lamenting a loss against TTU on home turf, and I am sure they will turn up ready to play and bank another 4 points.

The Saints will host the Cats. The investment in youth by the Saints is a solid strategy. On the Other hand, the Cats have some serious talent in their team and it would seem they will play a part in the September action later this year. It is hard to see how the Saints can stop the many avenues available to the Cats in the midfield and then the multiple goal kicking options up forward. On that basis the Cats will get the points and move onto round 5.

The Cougars will host the Pies and on paper this looks like a one-sided affair. The Cougars are a club who set high standards and possess a lot of evolving talent. The Pies are a team whom I think need to play more to show us how they are evolving, and the strength of their new game plan. I have no doubt the Pies will surprise a few teams on 2023 but not today and I am sure the Cougars will bank another four points and remain one of our top few teams.

The Jets will be back on home turf hosting the Roo's. As we all know the Jets have encountered a couple of hurdles in the early part of 2023 but I can assure you all that we don't hand out many premiership cups in April or May. For a few years now I have continually talked about the young talent in the Roo's camp with some of those resources moving onto higher challenges within football circles. Notwithstanding this, the Roo's will be disappointed with last week's result and I am thinking they will ready for today's challenge. It is hard to see the Jets losing at home now they have a few games under their belt but nor should they underestimate the Roo's or they might pay another heavy price. The experience of the Jets will see them chalk up win number 2.

Don't forget to check out the Netball. I encourage you all to spend 15 minutes or more watching this exciting element of our Brand. Pretty sure you will not be disappointed.

Well, that's enough from me.

Good luck to everyone today and remember to play hard but play fair.

Speak soon. David "dirty" Kyle President

SALE UMPIRE ASSOCIATION

We've seen some great footy across the first few weeks of the season. One thing we notice is a lot of confusion surrounding the holding the ball rule. The key thing to remember is that if you have had prior opportunity, you must immediately and legally dispose of the ball, or else it will be holding the ball. If you haven't had prior, then you must make a genuine attempt to legally dispose of the ball (kick or handball), or else it will also be a free kick. This rule can cause a lot of contention, but that's the basics of it.

We have two milestones to celebrate this week: Darren Farley does his 200th game for the SUA, while Ash Lovas does her 500th - a record for any female umpire in the SUA. Well done to both of you, and enjoy your days.
