FROM THE NGFNL PRESIDENT

Hello everyone and welcome to round eight of our 2023 season.

In comparison to the lead up to round 7 this week has been a breeze for me however as you read this report, I will find myself on the other side of the country. That being said, with today's technology I often wonder if you ever really feel too far away from anything these days. Last week I headed to the home of the Blues and made a guest appearance in my green gear to umpire the seconds match and then headed to Glengarry to say hello and check out the 120th year celebrations.

Last Sunday our Leagues two under 17 and under 15 interleague netball teams played in the Sale Tournament where they continued to represent the NGFNL with great respect and passion. Although we did not make the Grand Final matches. I think these young ladies walked away with a lot more than what any trophy could offer. It has been great to see players of several clubs come together and play with such care and concern for each other with a collective objective to do the best they can. I have no doubt they are growing in confidence not only in the game of netball but also as maturing young ladies in a competition which is above the NGFNL. There is one more tournament just around the corner "the Association Champs" and who knows how much more improvement is still within these three (3) NGFNL representative team's.

Well done girls, Coaches, Team Managers and all parents and family who are supporting and encouraging these players and teams. It was terrific to see and our new league uniforms in action which look great and aligns the colours of both representative teams within Football and Netball

Training sessions for the Under 18 Footballers will be advised within days if not already done by the time this report is printed and again, we wish all players and coaches the best of luck in preparation for the interleague tournament in mid-June.

In recent weeks I have often been asked why the clubs are no longer writing notes in the tagger and why there is not any netball report. My personal preference and opinion is that we are collectively missing an opportunity to share and update others on what is happening around the league but the answer to the question is that all clubs voted to abolish club notes because the task was too onerous and that internal club electronic mediums/platforms was the preferred pathway to share club news.

From a Netball perspective the league has often asked clubs if anyone is interested in being the Netball Scribe but with zero offers and therefore, we have little option but rely on technology to provide some of this info. Netball Nancy is unavailable as she has moved to a nursing home and therefore, we are reliant on websites and electronic mediums to keep the news and scores alive.

This week will see our 7th AGL Pride Cup being played in 8 years. COVID got us in 2020. Sale City FNC will host the Heyfield FNC and it has been pleasing to see both clubs engage in what is an important message around inclusion and diversity. I have no doubt both clubs will put on a great display of community sport for what is an important day on the NGFNL calendar. Our major sponsor AGL Loy Yang have been great supporters of this initiative and we are indebted to the support they provide us in being able to deliver this event each year. Good luck to all.

In last week's matches I was proven wrong in a few selections, and I am sure Uncle Arthur will be looking for me to shout him a refreshment when we next meet. The Roo's kicked up a gear against the Saints running out significant winners and perhaps showing signs of things to come. The Blues hosted the Dogs but were never really in the hunt going down to the Doggies by 6 goals. In the local derby over the hill the Dee's could not match the fire power of the Cats recording a convincing win and some local bragging rights until they next meet. In the 120th club celebrations the

FROM THE NGFNL PRESIDENT

Pies hosted the Tigers in what was a significant, milestone for both clubs. I did not see lot of this match but what I did the Pies looked good with Big Berma up forward clunking a few, kicking several and leading the Pies to victory over the Tigers who never gave up which is encouraging to see.

The Bombers travelled to the home of the Cougars which is always a daunting task but in what was surprise scoreline (for me anyway) the Cougars appeared to undone tactically and went down to the Bombers by nearly 10 goals which I would have never predicted. The bombers certainly sent a message to all and sundry with that result but be warned we don't hand out premiership flags in May but impressive none the less. Yes Arthur I will buy you that refreshment.

In this week's matches I have already mentioned the Roo's will head to the kennel where both teams will be brimming full of confidence after solid wins last week. I think this will be a ripping match and plenty of young talent on display for all to see. Hmmm The Roo's by 4 points Down at the cattery Woodside will host the Blues. The Cats are starting to set up season 2023 with real conviction and it is hard to see this talented Cat's team falling at this hurdle. The Blues are trying hard but lack the confidence which comes from wining whilst I have no doubts they will travel to Cattery holding no fear nor will they have the personal to hold back a rampaging Cats outfit on home turf who win and win well.

The Saints will host the Pies and the Saints will be disappointed with last weeks performance and looking for a better showing this week. On the other hand, the Pies had a confidence building win last week and will be looking for a back to back performance which has been a rare occurrence over recent years. Despite the Saints improvement in 2023 I think the Pies will get over the line.

The Tigers will host the Cougars and the challenge this week will again be a big ask for the young Tigers. If I was coaching these young cubs, I would break the game down into quarters and moments meaning, can we win a quarter, can we have great moments to draw confidence and leverage from moving forward. I would ask players to not think about the scoreboard but focus on their own individual opponent and the contest of those matchup's. Can you give me a contest at each moment of the game, can you run with your opponent for 30 minutes, not allowing them the freedom of attacking football promotes and can give me effort, which all and sundry including the opposition will stand and applaud. The result is irrelevant, just give me these things and you can hold your head high. The Cougars will win because they have more talent but let's see what the baby clubs can unearth for future reference out of today's game.

In the final match two heavy weights will do battle in a re-match of last year's grand final. The Bombers will host the Jets. I doubt the Bombers will be out for retribution from the 2022 Grand final loss but more to prove a point they have genuinely improved in 2023 and that they can handle the pressure of a big game and the big stage.

I have watched the Jets a few times and they have been patchy but still possess that dangerous ability to embarrass any team with a 6-8 goal quarter. It is true the Jets have probably not played a full 4 quarters of premiership football but in my eyes, they are still capable and dangerous. Based on form it is hard to go past the Bombers but nor can they take any opponent lightly and nor can they take anything for granted until the final siren has sounded. The Bombers possess a style of game capable of beating the best but potential in this game is a dangerous word. At home the Bombers are better team and based on form I can see the home doing enough to win by 10 plus points

Good luck to everyone today and remember to play hard but play fair.

Speak soon.

2023 Sale Netball Association annual tournament

This past weekend, the AGL Loy Yang NGFNL Interleague Netball teams took part in the 2023 Sale Netball Association annual tournament at the Gippsland Regional Sports Complex in Sale.

Our U15s put up a good fight and reached the semi-finals, but unfortunately, they were defeated by Gippsland League with a score of 13-9.

The U17's Reserves had a fantastic day, although they didn't make it to the finals. As for our U17s Open team, they made it to the Semi-Finals but couldn't secure a win against Gippsland League.

A big thank you goes out to all the players, coaches, and volunteers who made the annual Sale event possible. It's always a pleasure to witness the abundance of talent showcased by the NGFNL community. Looking ahead, mark your calendars for the association championships coming up in Moe on the 4th of June. It's sure to be another exciting event for everyone involved.

SALE UMPIRE ASSOCIATION

Dangerous tackles have been on the agenda lately, and no doubt many of you are aware of the issues the AFL are facing around concussion injuries.

The onus is on the tackling player to have a duty of care to their opponent. So what constitutes a dangerous tackle?

Contrary to popular belief, dangerous tackles are not just limited to sling tackles. Any tackle that uses unnecessary force (by lifting the opponent, driving them into the ground, or tackling them in a manner that causes their head to hit the ground) can constitute a dangerous tackle.

In fact, it is also possible to be reported for rough conduct if the tackled player's head hits the ground.

We've seen a few instances of this over the last few weeks, so let's all take care when tackling to make sure we aren't doing it in an unsafe manner.

UMPIRE SPOTLIGHT

Name: Chris Malone

Discipline: Field

Year Started: 2011-ish

Occupation: School Principal

AFL Club: Richmond

Goals: My long term goal was to umpire a Gippsland League Grand Final after doing some of the North Gippy Grand Finals.

My weekly goal is not to break down. The calves have a bad tendency to go without warning.

Random Fact About Yourself: I grew up in Traralgon and my family were heavily involved with the Traralgon Football Club for a long time. My dad and his parents are all life members.

I like footy, but I love cricket and have been involved as a player, an official and a coach at a variety of levels.
