NGFNL BOARD REPORT

Hello everyone and welcome to round ten of our 2023 season.

I trust everyone had a great long weekend break as we now turn the corner and head for our final's series. Yep, its round 10 which is a little bit hard to believe but true none the less. I must admit I have taken the last few weeks to perhaps switch off myself and undertake a number of things that were not NGFNL focused. When round 9 being played I found myself in Perth for a few days and • I thank Grant Johnstone for writing an impressive Board report which makes my waffle seem a little bland. Thanks. GJ appreciate the chop out.

- Last weekend during the long weekend bye there were a number of local fight MND initiatives and fund-raising efforts and accordingly I applaud any club or league who made an effort to support this worthy cause. I found myself at the Bairnsdale Rec reserve for a couple of (1) to celebrate a 1983 footy premiership and (2) to witness the Bairnsdale Big freeze slide. WOW what a mighty effort • by all and sundry and can you believe they raised more than $100,000 which is just amazing from a small country community. It is hard not to be impressed by that effort and that significant number.
- A week or so ago the Netball Association championships were held in the Valley, Moe I think were our league had three teams participate. Not only was there plenty of talent from our league on show but plenty from around all leagues in Gippsland. Despite the news and headlines at the top end of the Netball game, such as financial issues and the Collingwood team withdrawing it would seem at a local level the game is in good shape and thriving.
- our leagues representatives have been part of and I am sure every participant has gained some experiences to remember and hopefully some new friendships created. Well done girls and thanks for representing our league with such distinction. To all coaches, team managers, parents and supporters I equally say thank you for your efforts and dedication. Whether you know it or not your efforts have and will make a difference to these young women as they craft their game and move into senior ranks somewhere down the road. Well done.

- During the week a Board meeting was held with a heavy agenda as we not only deal with the usual monthly issues but start to move into our 2023 finals preparations. What I can tell you all is that we will again be holding our NGFNL Grand Final at the Gordon st Reserve at Heyfield and that our Preliminary Final will be at Churchill Rec Reserve. All other minor finals venues will be announced approximately a month before the end of the home and away season, or earlier if deemed appropriate.
- It has been great to see several Rising Star nominations hit our desk for the month of May. Gee we have some terrific young people around our league doing some great things, and it makes the assessment and decision making process challenging. Thanks to all clubs for nominating and we hope to announce the May winners within a few days.

Looking back at round 9 the Roo's put up a great effort against the Cats however in a solid performance the boys from the Cattery prevailed but the Roo's can hold their heads high. The Cougars were far superior over the improving Saints and the Jets were dominant over the Tigers. The Pies and Dogs were evenly matched coming into this match and the result reflected a terrific game of footy. Unfortunately, there can only be From memory this was the third tournament one winner and in this instance the Dogs got home by 2 points. However, I am sure Pies Coach Ray Burgess is proud of the Pies effort and will be looking forward to the challenge of round 10.

NGFNL BOARD REPORT

But the game of the round was undoubtedly the • one-point victory by the Rosedale Blues over the Demons in what many may think was a bit of an upset. This was a game which saw many momentum swings and some collective missed opportunity, but in the end the young Blues prevailed and deserved this moment in the Sun as reward for ongoing effort, commitment, and faith in each other. Coach Reid beaming like a proud dad of his boys and rightly so. Great to see and well done all.

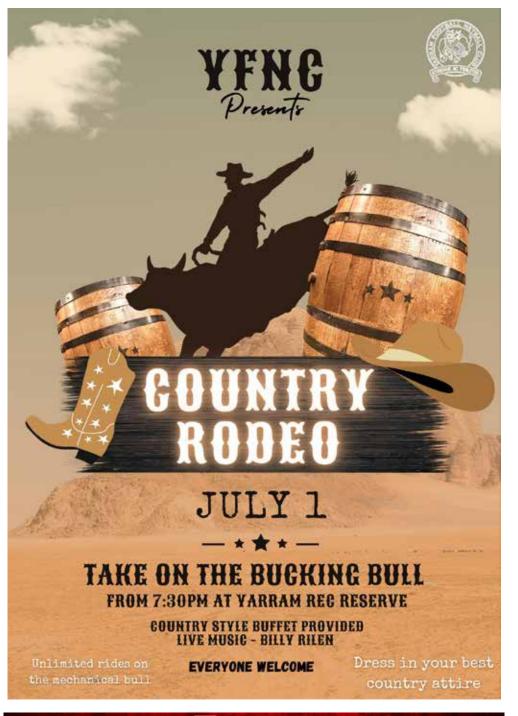

- This week's Round 10 clashes look interesting and with everyone having had a break I suspect all teams will be picked form full playing lists. In our first clash The Dees will host the Roo's and for different reasons they will both be confident of claiming 4 points. The Dees will know they cannot afford to relax against any opposition and the Roo's have been good without claiming a big-name victory which I think is not far away. It is hard to not pick the Dees at home, but I think the and could get real close
- Pies and on the surface, it would be difficult to not the Cats continuing on their merry way. However, the Pies will be buoyed by their with them to the Cattery. Notwithstanding league. this the Cats have plenty of talent and poise bring they will not let this one get away
- The Dogs will host the Cougars at the Kennel. As I always say the Dogs are a better team at Speak soon. home, but it will need a mighty effort should the be thinking about toppling the Cougars who yet again keep rolling out consistent performance's week after week and therefore I think the Cougars will get the chocolates come 5 pm Saturday night.

- The Saints will host the Jets and I have no doubt the Saints will hold no fear and will be looking forward to playing a top 5 team to measure their improvement thus far. The Jets on the other hand will be thinking they need to start cranking it up a gear as we turn the corner and head for finals. It's true the Jets have perhaps not been at their best but there is too much talent in this team to not a be force in coming weeks. The Jets will get home here.
- The Tigers will host ladder leaders the Bombers and it will be another tough day at the office for the Tiger cubs. The Bombers have quality across every line and are playing a more aggressive style than I have seen in previous years. I hope the Tigers can find some determination but at minimum they must take away from this game the style of game required to advance in future years. The bombers by a fair bit.

voung Roo's will throw caution to the wind To all our volunteers out there I trust you have had a good break and can muster the energy again for Down at the Cattery the Cats will host the the second half of the season. You all do a great job and without your efforts and service we don't have a strong Brand which is recognized by our peers. So well done and keep up the significant round 9 effort and take significant confidence contribution you are making to your club and and despite any improvement the Pies will Good luck to everyone today and remember to play hard but play fair.

AFL VICTORIA NEWS

THE LOCAL CLUBS THAT PRODUCED THE LATEST AFL DRAFTEES

The AFL Mid-Season Draft has given 13 players the opportunity to realise their AFL dreams including a number of Victorians who have progressed from two VFL appearances for the Box Hill Hawks. local footy.

iunior and senior community football with the Drouin Hawks, was selected by the West Coast Eagles with the number one pick on Wednesday evening.

Only 12 months ago. Maric was playing under 18 football for Drouin in the Gippsland League. More recently, he was stacking shelves at the local Woolworths. On Thursday afternoon, he will fly to Perth to join his new club as a professional footballer.

The 18-year-old is an athletic 193-centimetre. lean and versatile forward. But only a few years ago tipped the scales at over 100 kilograms before he committed himself to getting healthy through improved nutrition and fitness.

After completing his first pre-season with the for Barwon Heads. Gippsland Power as an over-age prospect (Maric was born in 2004 and turns 19 later this year), he has been a standout early in the 2023 Coates Talent League season, averaging 19 disposals and booting eight goals in his three appearances for the Power. He gained further experience and exposure through the Young Guns series and in Other great stories from the mid-season draft Gippsland Power forward Ryan Maric, who played include Eastern Ranges ruckman Clay Tucker, overlooked last year, getting his chance with Hawthorn at pick three. Tucker, who stands 204 centimetres, played his junior football for Scoresby, Lysterfield Wolves and then the Rowville Hawks.

> Ethan Stanley (pick seven) has had a great season so far for Box Hill after playing junior football with Beleura Junior Football Club before progressing to the Frankston YCW Stonecats.

> Brandon Ryan (pick 11) is a success story from VFL standalone club Northern Bullants. The 25year key forward who stands at 200 centimetres has kicked 18 goals and now finds himself on Hawthorn's AFL List. Rvan comes from the Maribyrnong Park Lions and played junior football

> At pick 12, Richmond has elevated James Trezise from the Tigers' VFL program. Trezise hails from the Tooradin-Dalmore Football Club in the Outer East competition and had previously played for Berwick JFC.

SALE UMPIRE ASSOCIATION

I hope everyone enjoyed the weekend off last week and took the opportunity to rest up and reset for the second half of the year. For some of us, though, footy never stops!

Last weekend, three of our young, up and coming field umpires got the opportunity of a lifetime when they umpired the Auskick grid games at half time of the Western Bulldogs v Port Adelaide match, at Marvel Stadium. Noah, Nic, and Connor all did a wonderful job and loved every minute of it.

By the time you read this, we will have had our joint training session with AFL umpires John Howarth (field) and Shane Thiele (boundary). These guys gave up their time and Thursday night to travel out to Sale and take us in some drills, giving all of us the opportunity to learn from the elite.

Enjoy your weekend of footy!
