NGFNL BOARD REPORT

Hello everyone and welcome to round eleven of our 2023 season.

Well as I start to write this week's report the weather forecast in the lead up to round 11 does not look great with the winter gods flexing their armoury and throwing a few tough days in our direction. I guess we have been blessed thus far in season 2023 and perhaps need to prepare ourselves for some interesting days ahead over the next few months.

Last Saturday I headed to the home of the Saints, and I must admit the Cowwarr venue continues to show improvement and growth. For example, in recent times their goal netting project is a sight to see and is now the envy of every other club, a new children's play was being well used on Saturday and a new netball warm up area is progressing. The recent change room and kitchen enhancements has lifted the profile of the club and maybe my investment into the Clubs major raffle on the weekend will help raise a few bucks for the next club project.

It is great to see any club continue the growth and facility upgrade pathway and my understanding is they have a few more projects in mind. Anyway, well done to President Ware and his hardworking team together with all the Saint faithful at Cowwarr. I encourage you all to keep up the great work.

A bit of a quite week around the league this week but the premiership flags have been ordered, all trophies and premiership medals finalised, and several other housekeeping issues ticked off our finals action and to do list. Our Grand Final dinner venue will be relocated this year as the Traralgon Vineyard winery has been closed and we are currently planning to trial the Italian Social Club in Morwell and perhaps hold our Vote count night in Sale.

 A week or so ago we finalised our interleague Netball games and now turn our attention to the Football interleague carnival to be held in Morwell during the school holidays. A number of training sessions have been completed with the team announced last Wednesday after their final training session. I thank the Glengarry FNC for hosting the final training session and putting on a meal for the boys. Coach Scott Anderson is excited and hopefully we can chalk up a win or two on the day. Good luck to all and thank you to everyone who has assisted us getting us to this point in our preparation.

To all coaches, team managers, parents and supporters I equally say thank you for your efforts and dedication. Whether you know it or not your efforts have and will make a difference to these young men as they craft their game and move into senior ranks somewhere down the road. Well done.

 Again, we have seen several Rising Star nominations hit our desk with some great nominations. We hope to make the monthly winner announcement very shortly and good luck to all nominees.

Looking back at round 10 the Roo's travelled to the home of the Dees and threw caution to wind and recorded a significant and perhaps season defining win over the Dees. Not too many team travel to Yarram and come home with 4 points in the bank so in my eyes this was a significant turning point to the young Roo's team. No doubt Coach Brown would have been delighted and excited.

The Pies travelled to the Cattery and were perhaps shown what it will take to be a top performing team in the NGFNL. The Cats delivered another very solid and efficient performance with a percentage boosting win. The Dogs hosted the Cougars and whilst their efforts were credible, they were far from embarrassed even though the Cougars got the points. The Saints hosted the Jets in another tough day at the office but to Saints credit they played the game till the end. The Jets need even win at the moment and tick this game off and move onto this weeks challenge.

And finally, the Bombers travelled to Tiger land and delivered what most expected as the league ladder leaders recording a significant victory however the Tigers continue to battle out each quarter and hopefully a win is not far away for this group.

- This week's Round 11 again look interesting and let me start with the Roo's hosting the Blues who will fresh after a couple of weeks break and confident after their one-point win in round 9. The roos claimed a significant win last week and will be brimming full of confidence so we should have great game on our hands here today. Both teams have plenty of young talent and makes for some interesting battles out on the field. However, the Roo's at home are always challenging and I think they can win again on home soil. It should be close and well worth the entry price to watch this one.
- The Pies will host the Dees and both teams need a win. The Dees form of late has been a little bit below expectations however their injury and unavailable list is not helping, on the other hand the Pies will see this as an opportunity to take advantage and bring their A grade game with the potential of banking 4 points come 5 pm. I guess anything is possible when it comes to a game of football, but I think the Pies will need to play an attacking style if they are to challenge the Dees who will be looking to bounce back after a few disappointing weeks. Gee I want to say the Pies will win at home, but I just think the Dees will get the job done knowing how important this game is to their finals hopes.
- In what is perhaps the game of the round the Cougars will host the Cats, and this should be a game well worth the entry price. We all know the Cougars are a tough opponent anywhere but even tougher at home they seem to find something at gaskin park. On the other hand, the Cats know that if they are to be taken seriously as a premiership contender the need to grab these opportunities with both hands and send a message to all and sundry, they are the real deal. Both teams have talent across every line, and I think it will be the defensive efforts which perhaps will make the difference. I just hope this game lives up to all expectations however only because this game is at Gaskin Park am I picking the Cougars by not much really this game could go either way and who knows could even be a blow out.

- The Jets host the young Doggies and there is no doubt the Jets like playing on their home ground in front of many passionate members. The Dogs see 2023 as a year of growth and will look to this game as a bit of a measuring stick. The Doggies hold no fear and will play attacking football because they know no different, but I think the Jets are starting to turn the corner and I expect them to win and bank another 4 points.
- · Ladder leaders the Bombers will host the Saints and history has seen these clubs deliver some close and tough contests. But history is not a guide for today's game as the Bombers are playing some really solid footy and playing a style which most opposition struggle to combat and I see this game perhaps going the same way. That being said, there is a lot to like about the Saints they are tenacious, determined and playout every minute of every game and to that I tip my hat. Regretfully these traits will not be enough to stop the Bombers who will continue their winning way. As we approach the depths of winter, I wanted to thank all club grounds keepers who are out their mowing and marking venues in what can be difficult times. We all appreciate your efforts even though your work is completed when no one is around. So, if you know these individuals I encourage you to say thanks and maybe even shout them a refreshment or two as they are invaluable personal around our clubs and league. Good luck to everyone today, play hard but play fair.

SALE UMPIRE ASSOCIATION

This weekend we celebrate a major milestone when Nick Cullis runs out for his 900th game.

Nick has been a stalwart of the Sale Umpires Association for nearly twenty years and has consistently been one of our top umpires. He has umpired in ten local senior grand finals during his 900 games, and even spent time in the Northern Territory where he also did a senior grand final.

But what a lot of people don't see is the work Nick does behind the scenes for the SUA.

He is a former Director of Umpiring and our current Treasurer, and does a power of other work as well, which helps keep things running smoothly. Without Nick's efforts, we wouldn't be as strong as we are.

If you see Nick out and about this weekend, make sure to congratulate him on this achievement!
