NGFNL BOARD REPORT

Hello everyone and welcome to round twelve (12) of our 2023 season.

Wow Wee round 12 signifies 66% of the home and away season is now done and dusted can you believe that? For some, season 2023 has moved quickly and for others it has perhaps been a difficult toil. Despite which side of the ledger you sit, I hope what always comes to bear is that whilst we can all share the same burden that we can equally share similar joys and inspiration within our league. I trust that when we look at a club or a volunteer attending to a weekly task that we stop and think, well done mate and thank you for your service for trying to make community sport better. For whatever reason I seem to have been having a lot of discussions around how the NGFNL is travelling in 2023, how is this club going or that club going, what are you doing about this or that? I don't mind these conversations. I don't mind sharing my thoughts or concepts and nor do I mind listening to perceived criticism as I know this comes with the territory of being League President when engaging with passionate individuals. However, these conversations often make me think about how others measure success.

The obvious to most is premiership glory and new shiny silverware on display in the trophy cabinet and I understand this is what competitive sport is all about, but my mind regularly drifts to those who do not achieve premiership glory and what is their measure of success? I am not sure too many of us think about this topic so I thought I would share a few of my thoughts:

• First and foremost, our league has not faulted once to fill 9 teams at every club every week despite any challenge confronted. Look around, there are forced byes, and forfeits on a regular basis in other community sport leagues and the NGFNL is seriously lucky to have the Administrators and volunteers within our club Network to drive great outcomes in this regard. We should be thanking these individuals and a minimum lend a hand should the opportunity arise, and we should think twice before offering any criticism.

- · Should we measure or view success in other ways such as how many Thursday night meals did serve, what does our membership base look like, who and how many local businesses are sponsoring us, what do our junior programmes look like and are they robust enough for future growth and success, if anyone thinks back a few years at your club and now look at the current day facilities as I cannot think of any club who has not forged ahead with capital works projects and improvements. Look at the great work every club does to raise awareness and acknowledge great causes such as Breast cancer, Mental health, NAIDOC or acceptance of inclusive and diversity culture within our Brand. Are these not measurements of success?
- In my eyes I could talk about alternate measurements of success in the NGFNL for hours, it is not always about the trophy cabinet, it is not always about finishing in first place. When times are tough, we should find our purpose and gratitude in participation. We are ultimately privileged to enjoy each other's company no matter the colours of our club or what sits in the trophy cabinet. When we get this right, we are richer than most.

Last Saturday I headed to the home of the Jets where it is normal to be warmly welcomed by the gate keeping staff. I got an update on the venue starting to feel the impact of difficult weather week but was encouraged by the enthusiasm. Notwithstanding this, the Jets were hosting the Doggies who were feeling the strain of injury and unavailability. At the end of the day all games were played in high spirts and great sportsmanship was evident for all to see and for that I say well done. In the Senior game of footy the Jets were far too strong as they set course to finish the last 6 rounds firing a few warning shots to all and sundry that they are far from finished in season 2023.

The Bombers were far too skilful in a dominant performance over the Saints. The Dees returned to the winners list against the Pies, The Cats did what the majority of teams have difficulty doing handing the Cougars a 10 goal loss on their home turf sending a clear message to all and sundry the Cats are the real deal in 2023. The Roo's delivered another solid win over the Blues and now see them fighting for a permanent position the league's top 5 and my gut feeling is a couple more solid wins and they can look forward to Finals action.

- This week's Round 12 clashes are bunch of crackers. The Pies host the Blues and both clubs will be looking for an invaluable win to raise the spirits around each club. Both clubs will be looking for retribution after difficult losses the previous week. The Pies must play without fear and the Blues need to set their youth free to attack the game at any cost. I have seen both clubs play excellent brands of football, but the truth is they simply do not play like that for long enough to win games, despite genuine effort. I think the Blues can get the job done but will not have it all their own way from a gritty Pies outfit.
- The Dees host the Cougars, and their games always seem to have plenty of spirt and entertainment. The Dees are better on home soil I say this all the time, but the Cougars will be reeling from their round 11 performance, and I think this will spur them on for a better outcome today. Both teams will need to maximise every opportunity and the team which does this better will get the 4 points. For me I think that will be the Cougars, but I wish both clubs the very best of luck.
- The Jets must travel to the Cattery in what potentially is the game of the round with both clubs having plenty yet to prove. The Cats have done little wrong and I am told by a reliable and knowledgeable source that this Cat outfit is the best group seen at the club since inception in the NGFNL. Powerful stuff from a local insider. The Jets are reigning premiers which means little on a day like today, but they will need to regain some premiership form if they are conjure and conquer victory at the Cattery. I have no doubt the Cats feel the need to keep sending all and sundry a few messages and they will not miss this opportunity to deliver another such note in a bottle. The Cats will strike again.

- The Bombers will host the Doggies on what will be a somewhat heavy venue if this week's weather forecast is correct. I like the energy and enthusiasm of the Doggies and I think this will hold them in good stead moving forward but the Bombers have looked solid all season and it is hard to see them missing out this today. The Bombers will get the job done.
- The Tigers will host the Saints where both teams will be looking for that elusive 4 points and the opportunity to sing the club theme song. There have been moments when the Tiger cubs have showed enough to win quarters, but can they sustain this long enough to win a game? The Saints have equally had some moments in the sun, and from what I have seen have perhaps played better footy for longer and I think gives them a confidence edge in this match. I hope both clubs can bring their best efforts and that this match can be an inspiration and springboard for future success. Maybe the best result here could be a draw!! Good luck to all and I will be watching with interest.

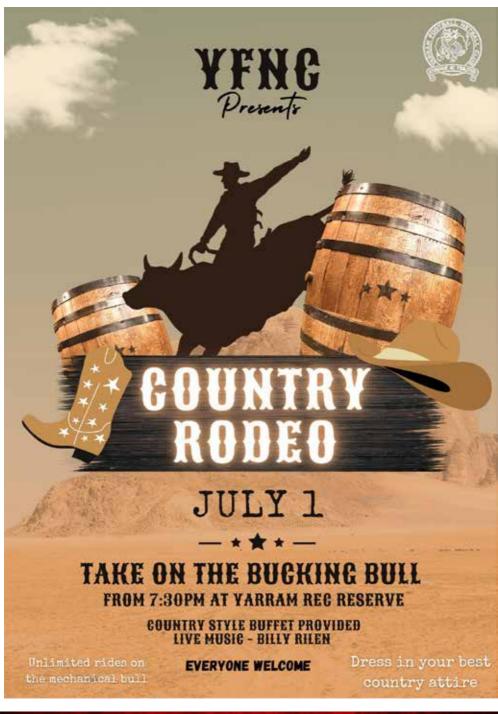

Good luck to everyone today, play hard but play fair.

AFL VICTORIA NEWS

CLUBS SPREAD ROAD SAFETY MESSAGE AND BENEFIT FROM FUNDING

One of the biggest funding programs benefiting grassroots footy in Victoria is back in 2023, with community clubs given the opportunity to share in $600,000 of investment through the Transport Accident Commission's (TAC) Club Rewards Program. AFL Victoria has spoken to a number of community football clubs about what the program means to their club and how they've benefited from the program, with applications in 2023 open until August.Matthew McCubbin, President of the Mitcham Football Club, says the program aligns to the club's objective to spread an important message in their community.

How did your club originally get involved with the TAC Club Rewards program?

Before the program was launched our club made a conscious effort to align ourselves with the TAC as a community partner. Their messaging aligns with our own core values while the demographic within our club is an important age group when it comes to road safety education. We then found out about the (Club Rewards) program from our league and decided to get involved.

What motivated your club to get involved in the TAC Club Rewards Program?

As a football club we are extremely aware of our responsibilities within our local community to educate our players, staff and members on the dangers that are associated with being on our roads. We have a duty of care to protect not only our own but others that share the roads. We have one of the most important demographics when it comes to road safety, that being young male drivers who are easily distracted from their responsibilities when it comes to road safety.

Many years ago I lost one of my best mates in an accident due to drink driving and have seen first hand the effects a loss of life can have on family, friends and those who are involved through no fault of their own.

How does the message of road safety connect with your club's values?

Our club values are based on "family" and "community" which directly links to road safety and the effects it can have on the local community. We have a strong culture of looking out for each other in every aspect of life but in particular making sure everyone involved is part of a safe environment.

What has your club been able to do with the funds you've received in the past?

We have not received any funding from the program so far but we will invest whatever funding becomes available back into the club with the purchase of equipment for our members and players.

Do you have any tips for clubs who are wanting to engage with the TAC Club Rewards Program?

Clubs that want to get involved in this program will benefit by inviting the conversation on road safety internally within the club. It's amazing how quickly your players and staff are willing to become actively involved and how engaged your members and supporters are when you promote the program on your social media platforms.

The TAC's AFL Victoria Club Rewards Program will be open for applications until August and more information is available at:

SALE UMPIRE ASSOCIATION

The Sale Umpires Association has another major milestone to celebrate this week, when club stalwart Keith Pritchard umpires his 1000th game!

Keith started his career with the SUA all the way back in 1996 and, apart from a small break when he moved away with the RAAF, he has been a permanent fixture of the Association. He currently goal umpires on Saturdays and field umpires juniors on Sundays, and is also our club secretary.

Keith is only the second Sale umpire to reach this milestone. Congratulations Keith, here's to many more games!

We also have a few other milestones this week: Ryan Heskey (100 games), Nic Walker (100), Chris Lockwood (100), Will O'Doherty (50), and Jim Fidler (50).
