NGFNL BOARD REPORT

Hello everyone and welcome to round fourteen (14) of our 2023 season.

Last week I headed to the Kennel and as usually were greeted by some happy and chirpy gate keepers who were doing a great job with the onset of some ugly looking clouds approaching and some cold gusty winds. Thankfully not much rain in those clouds and I can assure you all the SUA running umpires of the day were happy about that!! On the way home I had a quick visit to Rosedale to check out a few things but missed any on field/court action.

We are rapidly approaching the business of the season with only a handful of rounds remaining in 2023's battle for finals positions. Each week becomes more interesting no matter what grade of Football or Netball you play, and that alone is one of the great things about community sport.

Accordingly, I trust the supporters dig deep to cheer their players and teams in these last 5 home and away clashes and who knows, hopefully the supporter base can inspire a victory or two when it is most needed or when it is least expected.

- As we approach finals one of many topics which becomes talked about is the umpiring panel for Netball. Local versus independent, badged and at what level, experience versus rewarding talent, strength, fitness, style, so on and so forth it is a long list of things to consider. As you can imagine it is a difficult topic but one which gets significant attention by the Board. A couple of great initiatives seen this year in Netball is (1) the number of new umpire badging's we have seen within our club umpires, which demonstrates several things, such as growing confidence to the umpiring space and a higher level of commitment to umpiring. I say well done to those newly badged umpires and thanks to their respective mentors who have guided them thus far in the NGFNL.

- The second point worthy of comment has been the feedback given to the Board about the availability of Netball finals umpires, from within and outside of the league. Clearly this is something I know very little about, but this information has been invaluable to our Leagues Directors who are charged with the responsibility of selecting finals umpires. So, thank you to all those clubs and senior administrators who have provided this relevant information and detail. This will certainly assist the Board as we approach the finals campaign.

- AFL Vic recently appointed Tim Cotter into the fold of community sport with a very specific focus on Gippsland. Tim and I have chatted a few times about all things Football but also the issues we are facing here in the NGFNL, and he is keen to assist and offer guidance wherever needed. Last weekend Tim headed to the Cattery to see a great game of community sport between the Cats and the Bombers. I would like to thank Ash Walpole and his team for making Tim feel welcome and I am sure he did not miss out on a piece of sponge cake at their infamous afternoon tea. As I said last week the Cats celebrate NAIDOC week with great passion and enthusiasm and we have posted a few photos on our League socials should feel inclined to have a look. Many of you may have already done this given the speed to market this medium assumes. Hopefully you enjoyed what you saw and well done to all on the day.

- The Board met Wednesday night with finals topics the key of most agenda items. Hopefully if not already seen we will make several announcements about our 2023 finals and one which always seems to attract the most attention for obvious reasons, is where will our finals be held. That information will be shared as part of our public and club communication requirements and depending on when we send these internal emails this information may again already be public knowledge by the time this report is printed.

Last Saturday's results continued to keep me interested. The Roo's continue on their merry way with a very solid win over the Pies and now gives them great hope that a finals birth is real. The Cougars bounced back with a solid win over the Blues who continue to show plenty of promise. The Jets perhaps found a bit of that elusive form winning by a greater margin than I had considered however the Dees have work in front of them to run strong from here on in.. The Doggies accounted for the Tigers but the scoreline the Tigers continues to play out each game until the final siren sounded. In the match of the round the Bombers held off the Cats to record a solid win at the Cattery and no doubt both teams learnt a little bit about each other in the process This week TTU, Glengarry and Yarram have a bye and will be refresh for round 15.

- Let's start this week round 14 discussion with the Cougars at home, hosting the Roo's. I must admit I am a little tantalized by this proposition. The Cougars have been vulnerable recent with a significant injury list and whilst they found some form last week against Rosedale, I think the Roo's are a completely different proposition. I have always spoken highly of the Cougars as they have many quality individuals both on and off the field of play delivering bankable results for several years. However, there is something about the Roo's which I find exciting, maybe it's the developing youth, maybe it's the community spirit and maybe it's style of play they are starting to develop under coach Brown. I think the Cougars will get the job done but don't write off the Roo's they might just prove me wrong.

- The Jets will host the Blues and again if form is a guide, then the jets did themselves no harm last week. There is plenty of talent in the Jets line up, but it is fair to say they have lacked consistency thus far but really the home and away season are just practice games until the business end of the season starts. This week the Jets face the Blues who have been in winning positions many times this year but lacked the polish or killer instinct to finish games when victory is in sight. I have seen some of the young blue's talent unleash their craft and it is exciting when they play without fear. However, the Jets are a seasoned unit and know what is at stake should they not play with focus & skill. The Jets should win.

- The Tigers have another tough week hosting the Cats who have been in great form and rightfully deserve second place on the league ladder. The Tigers fight out games and I have no doubt they will do likewise this weekend, but the Cats have too much talent and class to allow any slip up and therefore will get the chocolates in this encounter.

- In our final game the Saints will host the Dogs, and this should also be a pretty good match. The Saints have shown a bit throughout the season and would love nothing more than a win in front of the home crowd. The Doggies were solid last week and arrive full of confidence looking to secure another 4 points at the expense of the Saints, but they will need to take nothing for granted as the Saints love an upset and will be fresh after a week's rest and tackle this match with a team at full strength. The Saints venue is a venue where you need to play smart, or you will pay a price and the Saints know this better than any anyone. I think the Doggies can win but in all honesty, nothing would surprise me here.

Good luck to everyone today, play hard but play fair.

The most promising 16-and-under boys with Indigenous and multicultural backgrounds from across Victoria put their skills on show in the annual All Nations v Kickstart talent showcase at Ford Park, Bellfield.

The All Nations (multicultural) and Kickstart (Indigenous) development program provides emerging players from culturally diverse backgrounds with the opportunity to progress on their football pathway and prepare for trialling with Coates Talent League teams in coming years. Players are linked to Next Generation Academy (NGA) programs at AFL clubs.

All Nations owned the first quarter and if it wasn't for seven behinds in the quarter, they could have had quite the lead going into the second term. They did manage four majors, while Kickstart only kicked the one goal. All Nations led by 25 points at quarter time. Ahmed Taleb nailed two goals in the first term to give his side the perfect start.

Kickstart did come-back in the second, winning that quarter two goals to one but unfortunately for them their efficiency going forward was an issue and they dropped some un-contested marks that could have brought more scoring opportunities. They clawed their way back into the game but couldn't capitalise as much as they should have in the second term.

The third quarter was fantastic battles from both teams as they managed two goals apiece, including some wonderful finishing. Kickstart's Archer Francis nailed one five minutes into the term to bring the deficit back to only five points and it seemed to be game on. Then Ahmed Taleb and Divjot Singh steadied the ship for All Nations with some timely goals to end the third quarter to give them a 19-point lead going into the last term.

In the final quarter, it didn't take long for Kickstart to get on the board thanks to Will Pappas who snapped through his second goal and it looked like a comeback was on the cards. But All Nations had the instant reply thanks to a set-shot from Seb Wolff who was left completely open, right in front of goals to seal the game for All Nations. Steven Polgase managed another one to Kickstart which was well deserved after the game he'd played but it wasn't enough as All Nations were victors by 17 points.

Kickstart had a lot of the possession and territory they just weren't able to capitalise when they did have the momentum while it was the opposite for All Nations, they took this game into their own hands. All in all, it was a fantastic arm wrestle of the game and the skills on display were excellent. We should be keeping our ears out for some of the names in this game as it was filled with an extremely talented group of boys who showed off their abilities.

Congratulations to our two TRFM Rising Star Award winners for the month of May!

Liam Heasley from Heyfield Football Netball Club and Oakleigh Riley from Churchill Football Netball Club.

Remember, clubs have until 7th July to nominate a TRFM Rising Star for the month of July.

Liam Heasley

Liam's dedication to training, being one of the first to arrive and always looking to improve but also to help out others where he can. He regularly goes over and above by helping get equipment sorted for training or getting on the front foot with off-field initiatives like club training gear; everything is pretty for this young man.

While still a younger club member, he has stepped up his leadership by taking warm-ups and being more vocal at training and game day. This has seen a rise in his performance and consistency, which also sees him drive the standards as he is helping to set them himself.

His passion to not only improve himself but to ensure the club is improving and is an inclusive environment for all is always at the forefront of his mind.

Oakleigh Riley

Oakleigh has come through our junior netball system and is now a major part of our Netball set-up. She is 17 years old, playing A grade for the first time. She was also appointed Under 15's coach for season 2023 and was a main driver for CFNC to field a Youth Girls football team this year.

Oakleigh has attended each training session for A grade (training commenced in November 2022), but she has also completed her scoring duties, canteen duties and is always willing to help in any area, usually without being asked. This is as important as any playing requirements in a sporting club.

Oakleigh attends U/15 training sessions early to make sure that when the girls arrive, they go straight into the session and are not waiting around, maximising the training time allocated for the girls.

Oakleigh is always willing help off the court (as listed above), and always assists in the morning set and afternoon pack up of the netball courts, which is often left to too few.

The club is very much in debt to Oakleigh's commitment and passion to get this done.

SALE UMPIRE ASSOCIATION

I want to give a shout out to our hard working goal umpires this week.

Our goalies have put in a lot of work this year under new coach Lachlan Floyd. Seeing them engaged at training and eager to learn new things has been fantastic.

On top of that, many of them have been pulling double or triple duty on Saturdays this year due to high unavailability some weeks. These guys and girls have, at times, been doing three games back-to-back-to-back to ensure the games all have goal umpires.

So well done to you all, and thank you!

If you've ever thought about waving the flags, we'd love to have you jump on board! Goal umpiring is the least physically demanding umpiring role, but it's still fun and rewarding. Drop us an email if you are interested!
