NGFNL BOARD REPORT

Hello everyone and welcome to round fifteen (15) of our 2023 season.

Well, we are really turning the corner and headed for the home straight now with only four home and away games in front of us before and exciting finals series will unfold. I have tried to look forward at the fixture to do some predictions of who will finish where (mainly for finals venues selections) but I must admit there are still some interesting games in front of us yet to unfold. Last week I headed to Gaskin Park the home of the Cougars where I had a pleasant with chat with the team in charge at the gate and for some unusual reason was looking forward to donning the green gear and having a crack at umpiring the second's game between two top 5 teams.

From a Senior Football perspective, the Bombers and Cats sit 1-2 on the ladder and I think it is fair to say they have been the inform teams of the league thus far this year. Both have long term coaches at the helm and playing lists with a tantalizing blend of youth and experience. Churchill sit third having endured a challenging time recently with injury and alike and I suspect this will only get better over the next few weeks. The YYN Jets have been far from their best but have done enough to stay in touch and in my eyes still look dangerous as the final's countdown begins in earnest.

However, it is the Roo's who have really shown growth throughout the year, and they have continued their improvement journey in 2023 to the point they now believe anything is possible with this young list inspiring an astute Coach and the Kangaroo army. In fact, I think I even saw a smile on Damien Birss during the game and that tells me something special has caught his eye.

The Dees and Doggies find themselves a couple of game outside of the top 5 at this point of the season but I think all options are still in play for both these clubs that with some solid form one of these clubs could sneak into the five at the conclusion of round 18. Both have a few bankable games in front of them and whilst they cannot change past performance it is critical, they believe in the future and the potential that lies within.

Therefore, the season is far from determined with four games remaining, where each game moving forward takes on greater relevance and has far greater value than just another 4 points up for grabs. These critical matches will be season defining and I know that every club outside of the top 5 wants fight the season out and they have no intention handing out free gifts to any club they come across I these last few Home & Away games, so I cannot wait to see what unfolds from here.

Last Friday we announced our finals venues and catering responsibilities for each club. This is never an easy task given we are making some predictions around likely ladders and venue capabilities. However, we do not make these decisions lightly a lot of thought goes into this many weeks before we make any official announcements. Sometimes we have facility challenges, sometimes the weather influences our thinking and sometimes we have ground unavailability which complicates the selection process. But one thing I know for sure is that our HOST clubs will present their respect facilities in the best shape possible and work professionally to enable any club to cater at their venue. In my eyes this is one thing which is invaluable to the Brand and very much aligns with the value of "be north gippy".

At this time of year, I always like to offer up a little bit of history around a topic which always seems to raise its head "home ground advantage" during a final's series. To cut a long story short the Leagues bi-laws were changed nearly 10 years ago to eliminate the rule of NO venue could be used if a senior football match offered a home ground advantage. I still believe the decision to move in this direction is 100% correct for several reasons. Firstly, I simple think when it comes to finals football that thinking is a myth. If Perth, Adelaide, Brisbane, or Sydney can host a home Preliminary final then I am not sure why the NGFNL should be worried and secondly if we desire to call ourselves a Football Netball league then why would it be okay to offer a Netball home ground advantage thinking that is okay but apply the same consideration for Football.

Last Saturday's results saw the Roo's continue their march towards September in a very solid performance and win over the Cougars. The Jets too care of business against the Blues, the Tigers were no match for the rampaging Cats and Dogs easily accounted for the Saints with all other clubs having a bye.

- Let's start our round 15 discussions with the Roo's hosting the Jets on home turf at the Gordon Street reserve. Oh boy this will be a defining game for the Roo's but in my eyes not an impossible challenge given the confidence this group has built in recent times. I have talked about the attacking style this club brings to each game and without doubt this has paid dividends but despite the excitement this style of play brings you also needs an element of defence to propel opposition attack. The Jets can make teams look silly picking holes through defensive structures or making teams pay for attacking errors. The Jets have known match winners who can hurt you in 30 minutes of football, which is why this team is still extremely dangerous. I am thinking the Jets will probably enter the game as favourites but there is something about Roo's which is exciting and infectious, and it would not surprise me if they pulled off a surprising victory to keep their finals charge well and truly alive.

- The Blues host the Bombers and again if the form line is any indication, then the Bombers will win and win well. However, the Blues have some emerging stars who on their day can be a real fly in the ointment of any overly confident team. That being said, I don't think the Blues can do enough to hold back the Bombers and cause any sort of upset.

- The Dees host the Tigers and will looking for this game to springboard their charge into a final 5 finish for which they hold significant confidence will be achieved. Despite the Tigers fighting out every game this has been another tough season for the club, and it is hard to see based on form and alike that today will be any different. The Tiger cubs have passion and spirit, but the Dees have a broader spread of talent and therefore the Dees will get the 4 points and the chocolates.

- Likewise, the Cats host the Saints, and it is hard to see the Saints providing any major resistance or challenge to stop the Cats from winning this game on home turf. There is no doubt the Saints put it all on the park every week and for that I tip my hat but the Cats are a focused unit who know the 2023 opportunity will only come once and therefore every game, no matter who it is, must a game to seek improvement and game strategy refinement. The Cats will win and depending on their hunger will win well.

- In the final game of the round the Pies will host the Cougars. The Pies have shown glimpses of great football but the truth from what I see and here is that they are still learning how to sustain this for longer periods to challenge those teams above them and/or to win those games which are in the ballpark of being on offer. On the other hand, despite the Cougars enduring some injury woes they are a club who know how to lift and rise to the challenge. Regardless of what has happened over recent weeks in terms of win/loss injury or otherwise they will be focused on September and will not be heading to Glengarry with any other thought than winning and winning well. The Cougars will get the points and the Pies will the get some invaluable experience of playing against a hungry and consistent club.

Good luck to everyone today, play hard but play fair.

LAMONT GIRLS MILESTONES

Lamont Girls Milestones

Glengarry FNC will celebrate some huge games of netball this weekend with the 3 Lamont sisters all having milestone games. Stacey (Lamont) Buckley will start the day off playing 200 games in C Grade followed by Lisa (Lamont) Marino playing 250 in B Grade and Rachel (Lamont) Kemna also playing 250 in A Grade. All of these are amazing efforts and even more incredible to be celebrating as a family this weekend. We wish the girls the best of luck and thank them for all their work at the club.

Indigenous Round

We celebrate our first ever Indigenous Round this weekend with the unveiling of our newly designed guernsey's. Current footballer Curtis Hood has spent months designing these jumpers and we are incredibly proud of his efforts. All elements of the jumper have a special meaning to Curtis and we look forward to unveiling them this weekend.

Victoria's football and netball communities will rally behind road safety this week, donning blue armbands to honour people killed on Victorian roads and show a commitment to reducing road trauma.

The fourth annual TAC & AFL Victoria Road Safety Round will run statewide July 21 -23, seeing thousands of people from country and suburban football and netball leagues 'Band Together', wearing blue armbands to honour all lives impacted by road trauma and to promote road safety.

Players, coaches, volunteers and supporters from more than 1000 AFL Victoria-affiliated clubs will wear the bespoke armband, which features a QR code linking people to an online hub of stories from people impacted by road trauma.

This year, 165 people have been tragically killed on Victorian roads – a 28% increase on the 129 lives lost at this time in 2022.

Road deaths in regional areas are a continued concern, with 94 fatalities this year compared to 73 at the same time in 2022. The number of people aged 21-to-39 who have died on the roads has risen by more than 20.

The TAC and AFL Victoria's Road Safety Round provides the perfect platform to speak directly to the thousands of Victorians travelling hundreds of kilometres on the state's roads for games and training every year.

Road Safety Round is just one aspect of the TAC's long-standing partnership with AFL Victoria, with the TAC Club Rewards Program offering clubs up to $10,000 for their efforts in promoting safe driving behaviours throughout the season.
