NGFNL BOARD REPORT

Hello everyone and welcome to round eighteen (18) of our 2023 season.

WOW WEE round 18 I cannot believe I am saying those words. Last week I headed to the home of the Blues where the crowd was building and the gate greeting all and sundry with a smile. I thought round 16 was perhaps my last game for 2023 in the green attire however I agreed to do at least one more game and who knows maybe even one more and then I will have six months to think about 2024.

During the last few weeks our clubs have been sending in their suggested nominations for the 2023 Teams of the Year in both the Under 18 competition and Senior men's game. Thankyou to all clubs and coaches who have spent some time thinking about this topic and making submissions. I can reassure you all the selection panel appreciate the input especially when the last 6-8 names are being considered as the quality in that bracket remains high and alternate opinions really helps. Those teams will be announced at the League Vote Count night and upload to our league socials shortly thereafter.

Last week all clubs gathered for one of our three annual meetings to discuss a variety of topics but also with a final's flavour and focus. Some points of interest I can share is the league budget is still healthy and on track, the Board will have a new dais for the 2023 grand final which will be constructed so that it is fully interchangeable with other sporting organizations and their respective signage. Clearly, we hope to generate a few dollars in hiring this asset. Our finals venues were set a few weeks ago and again all this information will be available on all NGFNL socials etc. Finals entry prices will be unchanged from season 2022 and a robust discussion around 2024 scheduling engaged a lot of debate and alternate views/ideas for consideration.

Tonight, there will be a number of teams who have played their last game/match for season 2023. I would like to thank all players, coaches, supporters and administrators for their dedication and commitment, no matter who these teams and individuals are. What I can 100% guarantee is the NGFNL is nothing without these teams and volunteers whom we are all indebted. Yes, the finals will be our focus moving forward but the home and away season is where friendships, bonds and rivalries are forged and none of this can be achieved without teams on the parks and courts week in and week out. I hope to see you all around the finals venues and look forward to catching up with many of you in 2024.

Last week the Roo's claimed the points over the Tigers as predicted but from all reports this was another great day of community sport at its best. The Roo's are guaranteed a finals birth the only question remaining is what position on the ladder will they assume. I think a double chance is still in play for the Roo's. The Pies hosted the Bombers but were no match for our ladder leaders who ran out convincing winners chalking up a solid percentage win and as one Bomber fan reminded me a little bit of humility to go with the 4 points. The Doggies travelled to the home of the Dees and played without fear or compromise and kicked a score hard to chase, notching up a very well deserved win and putting paid to any finals aspirations of the Dees. The Blues and the Saints played out a cracker with the lead changing multiple times throughout the match. However, when the final siren sounded it was the Blues by 3 points in a game which could have gone either way. In our final round 17 match the Cougars let one slip after leading by a couple of goals late in the day however you can never write off the Jets who showed yet again, they can be dangerous if allowed. I think a few top 5 teams will be hoping they can avoid any finals match up. I am not sure this is going to happen as the Jets may have just found their MOJO in readiness for 2023 finals footy.

- In round 18 the Saints will host the Roo's in one last ditch effort to get another win in 2023.

NGFNL BOARD REPORT

There was a lot to like about the Saints last week, they played with passion and looked like they were a team on the improve. However, this local derby will another significant challenge as the Roo's have silenced a few critics along the way whilst getting valuable game time into some of the aspiring talent on their list. I just cannot see the Saints kicking a big enough score to challenge the Roo's and therefore the Roo's will win, taking some much-needed confidence boost into the next weeks finals. I have said a few times before there is a lot to like about the Saints and I look forward to seeing what they can achieve over the summer break and await 2024 with anticipation.

- The Doggies will host the Blues down at the Kennel and both were on the winners list in round 17. This should be another terrific game to finish the season and no doubt both clubs would love to bank another 4 points and to be honest they probably both deserve that accolade. However, there can only be one winner. The young talent in both teams is impressive, they both have future stars in their midst. Last week I saw some passages of play by the Blues that made me look twice unfortunately they were unable to finish off the good work. The Doggies were perhaps not given a big chance at Yarram last week but proved many punters wrong. They also can turn it on from time to time and I am thinking on home turf the Doggies will finish the year on a high, but not by much and nor am I 100% sure.

- A tantalizing local clash over the hill will see Cattery come alive when the Cats will host the Dees. The Cats are flying, and I feel despite being second on the ladder they still have a few tricks up their sleeve in their quest for gig at the big dance in 2023. The Dees will feel a bit deflated after a long year and no chance of finals participation in 2023. It's hard to see the Dee's rising to the challenge the Cats will mount. The Cats will win and hold the bragging rights until they shall next meet in 2024.

- The Tigers will host the Pies, and both would love nothing better than to finish season 2023 on a high. This should be a better game than most may think. I have seen the Tigers play good footy, they just struggle to maintain that form long enough to win games. The Pies have equally impressed from time to time but seem to let themselves down when the game is in a venerable position. My head is saying the Pies, but the romance of a Tiger win would be a finishing touch to surprise many. Good luck all.

- Last but not least, the Bombers will host the Cougars. A win to the Bombers will see a perfect season thus far for the men in Black and Red. On the other hand, the Cougars will be looking to this game as perfect opportunity to sell a message to all and sundry that the top dog is venerably. I think a lot would need to go right for that to happen, but it is possible and nor do I know the team list for either club. Having said that, the form line and stats would suggest the Bombers will kick a score the Cougars cannot catch but I have been wrong before and sometimes I wonder what I really know about football!! The Bombers will be focused to avoid giving any quality opposition a confidence gift and for this reason the Bombers at home should get the chocolates.....but an upset would make things interesting.

Good luck to everyone today, play hard but play fair.

Ava is very passionate and dedicated to playing netball at club level and at representative level for the League. Ava has also been part of the Gippsport Netball Academy. Ava has shown her versatility and desire to play at senior level over the past couple of years.

This year Ava was selected in the B grade senior team whilst still playing 17&U age group. Ava provides a versatile addition to both the 17&U team and our senior B-grade team, with her talent extending across a number of playing positions, in particular mid-court and goals. Ava is flexible and understanding of each role asked of her. In particular, Ava has fitted well into the senior team and demonstrates maturity and promise as a strong senior asset in the coming years.

Ava has shown great initiative as a captain for our 17&U team this year and previous years, leading her team and demonstrating a positive attitude and motivating her players to play to the best of their ability. Ava takes the 17&U team through their warm up every Saturday and displays great leadership skills by motivating the players before they go on court, during the match and then during the post match cool down.

Ava leads by example and encourages teammates to stay positive. Ava supports the club with off court duties and is usually the first one to help out if extra work needs to be done. She has played 37 junior games and 22 senior games since she began her netball career with the club's U15 team. During her time at TTU Ava has always been committed to the club, with regular attendance at training and games. Ava has become a great role model for our junior players, demonstrating good sportsmanship, a positive attitude, a willingness to learn, follow instructions, uses her initiative and ask questions to assist with her development. Ava is definitely a rising star having won numerous club awards, including best finals player with D grade last year and winning the 17&U players player award. Ava also polled well, with league votes finishing in the top 5 each year. Ava strives for excellence every week through her hard work and dedication to being the best she can be.

Spencer has continued to work hard at his game and his determination to “be his best” is now shining through. Spencer is a well respected member of our senior player group, at just 20 he is providing an important link between our young Thirds players and our senior team.

He continually sets a great example of how team sport should be played and is held in high regard by the players, members and our supporters.

“Spencer has been determined to develop into a key forward and has worked tirelessly to improve his tank and also his marking ability. Whether it’s during training sessions or mid game Spencer is always looking for areas to improve his individual game and also output for the team. His accurate goal kicking is a result of hours spent in front of the big sticks before and after trainings.”

Jeremy Reid. RFNC senior Coach

Not only is Spencer excelling on the field, he’s working just as hard around the Club. Spencer is often the first one to check with the canteen crew or committee on any jobs that may do. Always eager to assist, whether it be bin duties, cleaning up tables after a function, or cleaning up the changerooms, it is never an issue for him to help around the Club. You can also often find him assisting on the gate selling raffle tickets.

SALE UMPIRE ASSOCIATION

One round to go before finals! All of us here at the SUA are looking forward to some quality football from the teams that make it through to the last four weeks.

This week we celebrate a couple of milestones, the biggest of which is Brandon Salisbury who will do his 600th match. Brandon is an Academy umpire who is also a Golden Whistle award winner, and was last year's NGFNL Umpire of the Year. Congratulations on the milestone, Brandon!

We also have young Charlie Tatchell doing his 50th match on the boundary this weekend. Well done Charlie, here's to 50 more!

To every club playing this week, we hope you play fair but hard and, if you aren't continuing on into finals, we look forward to working with you again next year.
