NGFNL BOARD REPORT

Hello Everyone

Round 2, was again conducted in glorious weather & I found myself at Glengarry watching a very one-sided thirds game. Although the score line was a convincing win to Heyfield, the Glengarry team never stopped trying & kept contesting the ball until the final siren. Congratulations to Jack Christian, on bagging 17 goals in the same game for Heyfield.

Heyfield, after 2 rounds are dominating the top end of the ladder, with all 3 teams winning 2 from 2, closely followed by TTU & Churchill with 2 from 2 in the Reserves & Thirds & Woodside with 2 wins on the board in the Seniors.

Over at the netball, Sale City & Churchill are again showing their strength in these early rounds.

Round 2 also saw Woodside unveil their Premiership flags for A, B & C Grades & likewise, Sale City unveiled their Flags for 15's, 17's & D Grade.

The media release for the Sponsorship between NGFNL & AGL Loy Yang occurred on Friday 19th April & we look forward to a continuing partnership with them for the next 2years.

Leading into the season, we held a competition, supported by AFL Vic, for registrations at club level & this competition was won by Cowwarr FNC who will receive 20 tickets to a ST Kilda game/s of their choice. (not inc finals or interstate games).

Again, Congratulations to Cowwarr on this win.

Yarram, in Round 1 & Churchill in Round 2, both hosted community days at their clubs' to try & encourage patrons back to footy & netball. Both, with their own initiatives & incentives reported that they had fantastic days & are hopeful that the patrons will continue to support the clubs in future rounds.

I would like to congratulate our 2 Netball Interleague teams that competed in the Traralgon Netball Association Tournament on Sunday 21st April. A special mention to our coaches Leah Leeson & Jess Anderson who were very proud of the girls' efforts & we look forward to the next 2 tournaments in Sale on 19th May & 2nd July. Also a shout out to Sarah Mayman, assisting Leah, our umpires Amy King & Brydie Hurrell & finally our Directors Rachell Waring & Kaitlyn Anders for supporting both teams & the coaches throughout the day.

NGFNL BOARD REPORT

Our Thirds Interleague Football team will be playing on 3rd July & nominations from clubs are now being sought by our Interleague Coach Ben Chivers & VP Brendan Garrett.

Good luck to all for Round 3.

17&U INTERLEAGUE TEAM

The Traralgon Netball Association tournament presented the first opportunity for NGFNL to showcase the talent of some of current juniors who recently trialed for 17 and under. Forming connection and show casing skill, the 17s in the first game, were slick, smooth in transition, great connection in defence/attack and the ability to utilise was the rolling sub was the prefect start.

Through the 4 round games, we struggled to repeat the perfect start, nevertheless there was glimpses of brilliance, opportunities and passages of connection. Expectation of defensive pressure was meet with multiple tips and turnovers. A wonderful attribute of a new group, 10 talented individuals embracing the challenge and opportunity to create a team.

Finishing 2 wins, 2 loses in 4th position, we meet a tall and well drilled 1st placed M&DNA. All players contributed and challenge M&DNA, falling 3 goals short. While eliminated in the semi final, we are better for the run and looking forward to the Sale Tournament.
